AKRON HIGH SCHOOL

AKRON, INDIANA

These children were just beginning a day and life at school. Akron High School is not just a school, but a place for making friends, learning many things, and having fun. We hope our Haze will illustrate how we accomplished this, and helped those who have graduated to recall the fond memories of their lives here.

We would like to thank our sponsors, Miss Bevington and Mr. Turner, for all the big and little things they have done for our class during the past six years. We had many "growing pains" but these fine sponsors always saw us through these difficulties. All too often we failed to appreciate these people at the time, but we now bestow upon them a sincere and heart-felt thank you for everything they have done. "Miss B." and "Mr. T.," thank you from the bottom of our hearts.

Ames High School nearly comes to an end the day the student council replaced the absent faculty members. Pamela Jones, acting principal, finds her task difficult, because she rings a false fire alarm. Then she has to decide whether to stand behind an unpopular teacher and whether to keep the school's star athlete, Ronald Sassoon, out of the State Basketball Tournament. Not the least of her troubles is Buzz Baily, acting vice-principal, who grandly advises a gossip student that there is to be "no more homework!" Then she has trouble with the teachers, Miss Goodin, Mrs. Clendenning, Miss Ogilvie, Mr. Harper, Coach Guthrie, Principal Lundquist, and board member, Mr. Ames. She also has a difficult time with Faversham Lightly Jr. who sleeps all the time; Midge Murphy, who talks all of the time; Shalimar Ames, who is a spoiled trouble maker; Tallulah Ploetz, who thinks she is an actress; Miss Dill the school secretary; Tick Tok, the janitor; and Mrs. Ratchet, the cleaning woman. To top it all off, Pam is accused to taking money from the school, and when she is finally vindicated by Faversham, she is quite ready to turn the school back to the adults.

For many years Wilbur Maxwell has wanted a motorcycle, but his parents won't get him one. So, when they leave on a business trip, Wilbur aided by his best buddy, Hercules Nelson, rents all the rooms in the house to strangers. Wilbur's two sisters, Connie and Betty Lou, and Betty Lou's friend, Bernadine, become employees of the boarding house tycoon. All goes well until Aunt Mary discovers the strangers, and Wilbur's parents return in the middle of the night to find the house full of such characters as Lucy Burns, a walking encyclopedia; the two Motts sisters, who never say a word; Ninety-Volt Jones, a fighter, and his wife Ruby, a lady wrestler; Mrs. Potter, an insurance saleslady; and two bank robbers, Limpy and Nora McGuire. Papa is put in jail by Connolly, a cop, who mistakes him for the robber, but before everything ends Wilbur has become a hero and gets his motorcycle.

The AERO STAFF--From the efforts of Pat Severns, Aero editor, Mr. Turner, sponsor, and the staff we received the most informative and enjoyable school paper in many years. They have set a precedent to be followed.

The ART DEPARTMENT--Miss Bevington introduced her students to the world of art through their own work. Also this department provides almost all the decorations for school events.

The SCIENCE DEPARTMENT--With the aid of Mr. Green, science became an interesting part of his students' lives. Here they are using some of the new science equipment.

Varsity

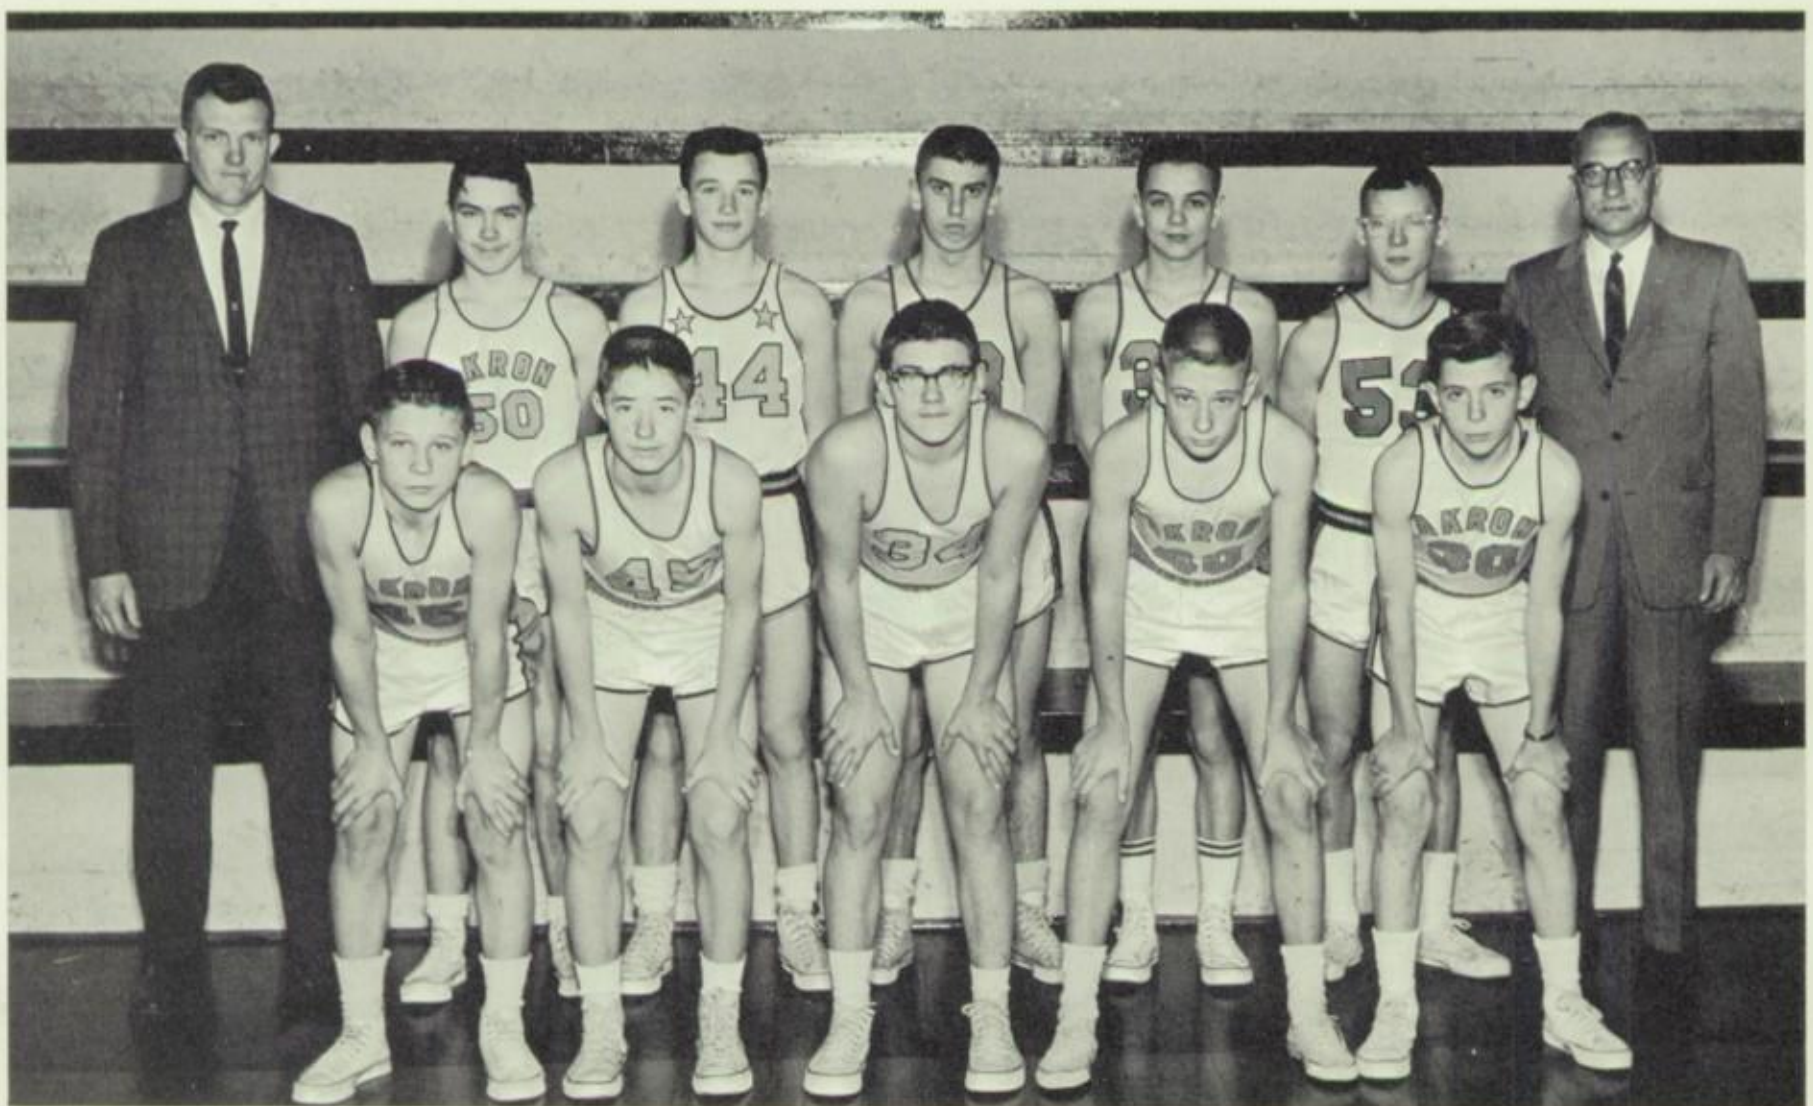

Akron was proud of their team. These were the eleven reasons for our pride. They were Ronnie Brown and Jim Bryant who were just talking over the last game. Jim Royer, Mike Ault, and Paul Schipper who were checking the points. Our Freshmen, who were getting ready to dress were Ken Weaver and Steve Henson. Dennis Helvey who had met with some bad luck, had Jim Teel make an addition to his autograph collection. The hope of adding another trophy to the collection was voiced by Rick Doud and Butch Barber. Though victories were few, good sportsmanship was displayed at all times. Akron was well represented by these boys as a team and as individuals.
